The new Shamrock's spinnaker hoists 140 feet, is 78 feet across the foot and is exceptionally full. There must be cloth enough in it to make canvas trousers for a whole orphan asylum of boys. —Big Bug Enterprise.

The navy department has contracted for 200,000 pounds of frankfurter, 145,000 pounds of sauerkraut and 90,000 pounds of bologna sausage for its fighting force. That should smother any smoldering German criticism for a little while. —Washington (D. C.) Post.

If the editor makes a mistake he has to apologise for it, but if the doctor makes one he buries it. If we make one there is a lawsuit, swearing and a smell of sulphur; but if the doctor makes one there is a funeral cut flower and a smell of varnish. The doctors can use a word a yard long without knowing what it means, but if the editor uses it he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor goes to see another man's wife he gets a charge of buckshot. Any medical college can make a doctor. You can't make an editor, he has to be born. When a doctor gets drunk it's a case of "overcome by heat," and if he dies it is heart trouble. When an editor gets drunk, it's a case of too much booze, and if he dies it's a case of delirium tremens. —Ex.

Since the public refused to "put up" for his undigested securities Mr. Morgan has been playing second fiddle to a gentleman by the name of S. O. Urgrapes.
